Vs. 2: Through December our love deepens
 Down frosty highways, in midnight blue
 Days and nighttimes run easy by your side
 While the rooftop sings with soft night rain
 As you dream beside me, as the stars dissolve
 Into daybreak, the road unfolds anew.

Vs 3: As the blustery day when we first met
 Is marked again on this sweet new year
 Sun-warm stillness this morning here with you
 As we walk through seasons yet to come
 Through moody changes, through peaceful days:
 Oh, what fortune to share this life with you!
